

How Do YOU Spell Safety?

Did you know that the fatal crash risk per person-mile of travel in General Aviation (GA) flying is many times greater than its commercial airline counterpart? But it doesn't have to be this way. So, how do YOU spell SAFETY? Attend this informative briefing and learn what simple tools are available to you that will help you understand, prioritize, and manage risks that cause GA accidents. Featured speaker Michael Levy will share these tools and how to most effectively use them. Don't miss this opportunity to become a safer pilot! Click on the link below to see all the details and register TODAY!
